

The UN Convention Against Torture prohibits torture anywhere, anytime and for any purpose. Today, 26 June, marks the 20th anniversary of the convention. But the fight against torture is far from won. Go to www.irct.org to learn more about the IRCT's global work to support torture survivors and to combat torture in all its forms - and see how you can help.

IRCT - toward a world without torture

International Rehabilitation Council for Torture Victims

This ad has been placed with the support from the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs

www.irct.org